Principal's Report

Crazy Hair Day

Last Friday was a 'Crazy Day' at Hay Public School with students getting into the spirit and supporting the fundraiser held by the Parliamentarians. Pictured this week are Emily Gibson and Lanta Clark with the craziest hair imaginable. To cap off the crazy day, crazy ice-creams were served as a No Greenslip Reward treat. Our last No Greenslip Reward will be the annual Pool Party at the end of the year. Students are reminded to stay focused on our four very simple school rules, so that they are able to enjoy this treat.

HWHHS Transition

Year 6 students have been participating in lessons over the past couple of weeks as part of their high school transition program. Last week, students enjoyed a lesson with Mr Tripney and made a plastic key ring. Over the coming weeks, students will participate in a music, science and PE lesson. To participate in the practical lessons, students need to wear the correct footwear (black, leather upper enclosed shoes). Students are walked to and from the high school with a member of the HWMHS teaching staff.

Proud and Deadly Awards

Invitations have been issued to students who will be attending the Indigenous Proud and Deadly Awards ceremony in Deniliquin next Thursday, 28th November. A bus has been booked to transport students. Seats are available for parents but are limited and must be booked through the school. Miss Kennedy will accompany the students to Deniliquin.

Swimming School

Swimming School is due to commence next week and will run for two weeks. Students from Years 2 and 3 will attend a swimming lesson every day and students from Years 4-6 will attend if they are unable to swim confidently. Please ensure that students come to school prepared to swim with swimmers, hat, towel and sunscreen every day for the next two weeks.

SCHOOL RULES

I can do my best.

I can respect all people.

I can respect all property.

I can be in the right place.

Parliamentarian Nominations

Nominations are currently being taken for the positions of student leader in 2014. Students from Year 5 are reminded to collect their nomination forms from Mrs Dunn and hand them into the front office by this Friday, 22nd November. Elections will be held immediately following students presenting their speeches on Monday, 2nd December.

Have a great week!
