Principal's Report

Operation Art

Earlier this year, students at Hay Public School entered Operation Art, a competition run by the Department of Education to select artworks to hang in Westmead Children's Hospital. Selected works are also sent to regional hospitals to hang in their children's wards and offices for the Department of Education and the major sponsors. All four Hay Public School Operation Art entrants, Sarah Towler, Jim Houston, Lainey Harman-Biggs and James Millyard travelled to Sydney Olympic Park last weekend to view their artworks at the Armory Gallery. Jim Houston's artwork was selected for donation to a children's ward in a regional hospital and Sarah Towler's artwork was selected to go to the offices of a major sponsor and then will be donated to a regional hospital. The framed artworks looked wonderful hanging in the gallery and Hay Public School is very proud of Lainey, Jim, Sarah and James.

UNSW Writing Competition

We have received some outstanding results in the recently held University of NSW Writing Competition. Fifteen students participated with one distinction, five credits and one merit being awarded. Congratulations to Lachlan Clark (Year 4) on receiving a Distinction, Bailey Caghey, Lachlan Marks, Lucy Shea (Year 3), Harriet Campbell (Year 4), Iona Cullenward (Year 6) on receiving a Credit and Lanta Clark (Year 6) who was awarded a Merit. Certificates for writing will be awarded at this Friday's assembly along with spelling certificates.

Making Contact

At times, it is important as a parent to contact teachers to impart information or discuss a matter in relation to their child. Teachers are available to talk to parents before and after school, during their release time or a simple phone call may be all that is needed. Please avoid phoning the teacher's personal mobile phone, home phone numbers or contacting them via their personal Facebook account. The school will always pass on messages, make appointments or pass on requests for teachers to phone parents. This is the correct way of making contact. The school's contact details are displayed in this newsletter.

Principal's Reward Lunch

Congratulations to the students who will be rewarded with a Principal's party in the Kitchen-Garden next Monday. Students were selected for consistent work, excellent behaviour at all times and for persevering to make good progress in their learning. The following students have received an invitation in the post this week: Emily Taylor, Gus Keating, Lanta Clark, Ronan Haines, Veletah Kennedy, Harriet Campbell, Archie Houston, Nunia Dave, Chloe Arandt, Zali Turner, Jarome Cooper, Mackenzie Dawson, Oliver Liddington-Denehey, Meagan Foggo, Isaac Gardiner, Janee Davies, Riley Harris and Jim Houston.

Have a great week.
